Exalted Ruler, Clint Tompkins

May is shaping up to be a very busy and exciting month at Elks Lodge #335. With spring in full swing, we have many meaningful events that highlight our commitment to youth, patriotism, and community service. As we move forward together, let's continue to remember our guiding slogan: "If you see a need, take the lead."

We begin the month celebrating our youth during Youth Week, followed by our Scholarship and Americanism Essay Awards Dinner. This year we are especially proud to recognize Kai Pino, who was selected as the 2nd Place National Winner in the Americanism Essay Contest. This is an outstanding accomplishment and a tremendous honor not only for Kai, but for our Lodge and community. Achievements like this demonstrate the impact our youth programs have and why they remain such an important part of what we do.

We will also enjoy fellowship and fun during our Cinco de Mayo celebration. The State Convention, taking place May 7th through 10th, provides an opportunity for members to represent our Lodge, share ideas, and bring back valuable information to help strengthen our programs and activities. Your participation and support in these events keep our Lodge active and thriving. As we move through the month, we recognize the importance of family and remembrance. We celebrate our mothers on Mother's Day, honoring those who have given so much to our families and communities. Later in the month, we gather for our Memorial Day Picnic and participate in the VA National Cemetery Memorial Service to pay tribute to the brave men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice. Memorial Day reminds us of the true meaning of service and patriotism.

With so many opportunities to get involved this month, I encourage everyone to participate where you can. Whether attending an event, volunteering, or simply showing support, your involvement makes a difference. When you notice an opportunity to help, step forward — if you see a need, take the lead.

Wishing everyone a wonderful May. I look forward to seeing you at the Lodge!

Esteemed Leading Knight, Tyler Vanwey

Howdy from your Lodge here in sunny Phoenix! May is rolling in hot (because... Phoenix), and so is the fun at the Lodge. It's the perfect time to swing by, cool off, and enjoy some great company.

A big tip of the hat to everyone who made the Cowboy Cookout on April 18th such a hit. The food was fantastic, the laughs were plenty, and best of all—our veterans felt the appreciation. That's something we can all be proud of.

Now here's where I'm gonna nudge you just a little... ever thought about stepping up as an officer? Don't worry, there's no secret handshake test (well... maybe just a small one). It's a great way to get more involved, have a say in what we do, and keep this Lodge thriving. Plus, you'll earn bragging rights—and maybe a few extra laughs along the way.

At the end of the day, this place is what we make it. So come on down, jump in, and be part of the fun. Stay cool, stay thirsty (for Elk spirit, of course), and I'll see you at the Lodge!

Esteemed Loyal Knight, Jeff Beasley

As we approach Memorial Day, we are reminded of the true meaning behind this solemn and sacred day. Memorial Day is not just the unofficial start of summer, nor is it simply a time for gathering with friends and family; it is a day set aside to honor and remember the brave men and women who gave their lives in service to our country.

These heroes made the ultimate sacrifice so that we may live in freedom. Their courage, selflessness, and unwavering commitment to something greater than themselves should never be forgotten. It is because of them that we are able to gather in peace, raise our families, and pursue our dreams.

At Phoenix Elks Lodge #335, we hold these values close to our hearts. As Elks, we are committed to remembering our fallen, supporting our veterans, and standing beside those who continue to serve. This Memorial Day, we not only reflect on the sacrifices made but also lift up in prayer those who are currently serving both at home and abroad, asking for their protection, strength, and safe return.

This year, we invite our members, families, and community to join us for our Memorial Day Picnic at the Lodge. It will be a time of fellowship, gratitude, and remembrance. Together, we will share a meal, connect as a Lodge family, and take a moment to pause and honor those who have given everything for our nation.

Let us come together this Memorial Day not only in celebration of community, but in reverence and respect for those who made our freedoms possible.

May we never forget their sacrifice.

May we always support those who serve.

And may we continue to live lives worthy of the freedoms we've been given.

First Responders Night

Submitted by Tyler Vanwey, Esteemed Leading Knight

Lodge 335 proudly hosted our annual First Responders Night, bringing together communities from across the Valley and beyond to recognize the courage and dedication of law enforcement agencies serving the region from Tucson to Phoenix.

The event was led by Exalted Ruler Karen Seamen, whose commitment to community service and support for first responders helped make the evening a meaningful success. Special recognition goes to Randy Sterling for his hard work and dedication in organizing and putting together this outstanding event.

The evening honored a distinguished group of agencies, including the Phoenix Police Department, Drug Enforcement Administration, Federal Bureau of Investigation, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Paradise Valley Police Department, and the Arizona Department of Public Safety. Their presence reflected the strength of collaboration across local, state, and federal levels of law enforcement.

Lodge members and community supporters welcomed first responders with gratitude, reminding them that their service does not go unnoticed. From routine patrols to critical emergency response, these individuals embody commitment, bravery, and selflessness.

The evening's program was guided by emcee Al Kayal, whose leadership and presence helped create a warm and engaging atmosphere throughout the event.

The program also included remarks acknowledging the sacrifices made not only by officers, but also by their families, who stand behind them through the challenges of the profession. Attendees were encouraged to reflect on the importance of strong relationships between law enforcement and the communities they serve.

Events like First Responders Night are a cornerstone of the Elks' mission—supporting those who serve our nation and neighborhoods. By hosting gatherings like this, our Lodge continues to strengthen community bonds and foster respect and appreciation.

As the evening concluded, one message stood clear: the dedication of our first responders is deeply valued, and their impact reaches far beyond the call of duty. Phoenix Elks Lodge 335 remains committed to honoring these heroes today and every day.
